

CURRENCY BILL IS DEAD AND BURIED

MR. CARLISLE'S SCHEME PRACTICALLY KNOCKED OUT.

Yesterday's Refusal To Close the Debate Was Its Death Knell—Many Democrats Vote with Republicans—The Vote Stands 129 to 122—In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The currency bill was practically defeated in the house yesterday. The demand for the previous question on the adoption of the rule to close debate on the measure was defeated on a rising vote of 92 to 101. A roll call was ordered, resulting in a vote of 122 yeas to 129 nays.

There was a good attendance on the floor of the house when Speaker Crisp dropped the gavel, as notice had been given that a special order to terminate general debate on the currency bill would be reported from the committee on rules.

As soon as the committees had been called for reports Mr. Outhwaite presented the special order from the committee on rules. The order provided for the closing of general debate on the consideration of the Springer substitute as an original bill under the five-minute rule to-day, to-morrow and Friday until 4:50 p. m., when it provided for the report of the bill and pending amendments to the house for final vote on Saturday immediately after the morning hour.

Mr. Outhwaite made a brief speech, urging the necessity for closing the debate on the currency bill and for disposing of it in order that more pressing measures, like the Nicaragua canal bill, might be considered.

Mr. Bland wanted to know if an opportunity to offer an amendment to strike out the enacting clause (which would kill the bill) would be given.

Mr. Outhwaite said the rule discriminated against no amendments, and Mr. Springer again assured the house that there would be no disposition to cut off members with amendments, but Mr. Bland was not satisfied and insisted that a provision be inserted in the rule or an agreement be had by which a vote could be had on his amendment.

Mr. Reed agreed with his colleague, Mr. Dingley, that sections 9 and 10, relating to state banks, which were vital, should be first considered.

After some further wrangling, during which Mr. Bland and others loudly protested that the adoption of the rule would cut them off, Mr. Outhwaite rejected all suggestions for amending the rules and demanded the previous question.

The republicans voted solidly with the democratic opponents of the measure against ordering the previous question, and it was defeated by a rising vote, 92 to 101.

Among the democrats who voted against ordering the previous question were: Cockrell (Texas), McGann (Ill.), Hooker (Miss.), Ellis (Ky.), Money (Miss.), Bailey (Texas), Bland (Mo.), Hall (Mo.), Holman (Ind.), and Conn (Ind.).

Mr. Outhwaite hurriedly demanded the yeas and nays, and the roll was called, resulting in a defeat for the rule by a vote of 122 to 129. This was a decisive test vote, and practically kills the bill.

[Analysis of the vote: Yeas—Democrats, 123; republicans, 0; populists, 1. Nays—Republicans, 82; democrats, 39; populists, 8.]

The following pairs were announced: Cooper (Ind.) with Wheeler (Ill.), Layton (Ohio) with Stockdale (Miss.), Price (La.) with Grosvenor (Ohio), Kribbs (Pa.) with Johnson (Ind.), Cockran (N. Y.) with Bingham (Pa.), De Forest (Conn.) with Sweet (Idaho), Crain (Texas) with Blair (N. H.), Bankhead (Ala.) with Milliken (Maine), Forman (Ill.) with Lefever (N. Y.), Sorg (Ohio) with Marvin (N. Y.), O'Neill (Mo.) with Wilson (Wash.), Lane (Ill.) with Hooker (N. Y.), Heard (Mo.) with Hull (Iowa), Somers (Wis.) with Houk (Tenn.), Caminetti (Cal.) with Belden (N. Y.), Cobb (Mo.) with Babcock (Wis.).

The postoffice appropriation bill was then taken up. The bill as explained by Mr. Henderson, chairman of the committee on postoffices and post roads, carried $89,442,153, or $1,616,330 less than the estimates, but $2,206,353 more than the appropriation for the current year. The estimated receipts for the next year were $2,535,543 less than the sum carried by the bill. Without amendment the postoffice appropriation bill was then passed, and at 4:45 the house adjourned.

IN THE SENATE.

Quay Continues His Attacks on the Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—In the senate yesterday Senator Cockrell, from the appropriations committee, reported the urgency deficiency bill and it was placed on the calendar. Senator Cockrell giving notice that he would call it up to-morrow. Replying to Senator Quay, Senator Cockrell said there had been no amendments by the committee to any portion of the bill relating to the income tax.

Mr. Quay asked the senator whether it would not be well in the bill, "instead of smothering the names and salaries of employees in the reports made by corporations under the income tax, to compel a publication in such form so that the list of the names of employees shall be accessible to the public." The senator claimed he personally knew of cases where injustice had been caused by the absence of such a rule. He also gave notice of the following amendment to the bill:

"Nothing in any law to the contrary shall preclude any court of the United States having jurisdiction to the parties from considering and determining as to the constitutionality or validity of said act, or any part thereof, as relates to the taxes upon gains or profits and incomes therein mentioned whenever by any proceeding which shall have been commenced or pending in such court such questions shall be presented."

Dr. Pascoe (dem., Fla.) addressed the senate on the Nicaragua canal bill. He announced that while favoring the construction of an inter-oceanic canal, yet he was opposed to the pending bill. The senate passed the bill reported Tuesday for the relief of homestead settlers in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan, and after an executive session adjourned.

SENATORS TO ACT.

Voorhees Calls His Finance Committee Together for Consultation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Many of the democratic senators received the announcement of the adverse vote on the currency bill as a summons to the senate to take the question up and find a way out of the difficulties with which the country finds itself confronted. Senator Voorhees took the first step for the formal consideration of the matter by issuing a call for a meeting of the finance committee to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock with the hope that an exchange of views on the part of members of the committee will indicate general lines upon which a bill may be framed which would stand a chance of receiving the approval of the committee and of the senate. It is also understood Senator Vest has in mind the outline of a plan for a bill which he may submit to the committee and which may prove the basis of future action. The two principal features of the plan are:

"1. To authorize the issuance of a sufficient number of low rate bonds to retire the $346,000,000 worth of greenbacks. 2. To provide for the purchase and coinage of a sufficient quantity of silver to increase the silver issuance to $750,000,000, which would be an increase of about $150,000,000."

CHARGES AGAINST RICKS.

House Committee Postpones Investigation Until Next Monday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Consideration of the charges against Judge Ricks of Cleveland have again been postponed by the house judiciary committee until Monday next, as the attendance was one member short of a quorum. The testimony by the Cleveland Labor union will be taken up. The charges which Samuel J. Ritchie of the Canadian Copper company has made will not be considered by the committee until the first case has been disposed of. Judging by the expressions of several committeemen there is doubt whether Mr. Ritchie's case will be deemed worthy of serious investigation, as there is not shown sufficient cause to justify them in taking up his petition.

Carlisle Gives Up.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—At the conference in the speaker's private office yesterday after the vote on the motion to close debate on the currency bill Mr. Carlisle expressed regret that the rule had been defeated, and he shared the view of others present that the defeat closed the prospects of the currency bill in its present form.

New Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Senator Palmer, chairman of the committee on pensions, yesterday introduced a bill providing for a pension of $50 per month to ex-soldiers for the loss of one arm above the elbow or of a leg above the knee, and of $60 for the loss of an entire arm or leg.

Big Institution in Trouble.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Jan. 10.—Creditors of the Fidelity Loan and Trust company had a meeting yesterday to consider the question of a receivership. The company is one of the leading financial concerns in the northwest. The liabilities of the company are about $4,000,000, and the assets nominally the same. The company did an immense farm loan business. The failure of crops cut off interest payments to the company. More than $80,000 interest due the company on farm loans is in default. The company did no banking business and no local banks or enterprise is involved. It is believed the company's assets will pay out the liabilities in a little time.

The Wyoming Legislature.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 10.—The legislature organized yesterday. Gov. Rickards' message was read. He advocated greater restrictions being put upon the accumulation of capital, and recommended the acceptance by the state of a one-million-acre grant of land under the Carey irrigation act.

Lincoln's Treasurer Dead.

LEGISLATURES MET
IN MANY STATES

GOVERNORS SEND IN THEIR MESSAGES.

Mr. Lewelling, of Kansas, Devoted Most of His Space to the Liquor Question—Nelson, of Minnesota, Has Much Advice—The Doings at Other Capitals.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 10.—Several important bills were introduced in the senate yesterday, among them one to exterminate the Russian thistle. Senator Wyman introduced a bill to extend the provisions of the general election law (the Australian system) to cover primary elections and caucuses.

At half past 10 o'clock Gov. Nelson took the oath of office and read his message to the legislature. The message refers to the terrible forest fires of last September, recites the measures of relief, and calls on the legislature to reimburse the state commission for extra expense incurred. Of the famous coal combine investigation he gives the brief history, and calls attention to the balance of $48,468 that should be covered into the state treasury, that much being left of the $50,000 appropriated to prosecute the cases in the courts. An extension of the powers of the state bank examiner so that he may close insolvent state banks if deemed advisable is recommended. Changes in the state prison laws to allow the employment of all the convicts are urged and a careful consideration of all the various methods of employing them is invited. In the matter of labor legislation he recommends a law for the protection of miners similar to the factory inspection law adopted two years ago.

THE KANSAS MESSAGE.

It Is Devoted Largely to a Discussion of the Liquor Traffic.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 10.—The message of Gov. Lewelling to the Kansas legislature was delivered simultaneously to both houses at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The first half consisted of recommendations of needed legislation along lines which have been traversed many times before, but which have not been heeded by the two lawmaking bodies. The governor favors excluding foreign insurance companies from the state. Continuing he says: "Public sentiment in our principal cities nullifies the prohibitory law; business men believe the liquor traffic helps business; taxpayers believe license from saloons would lighten taxation; landlords believe saloons would fill now tenanted rooms; fashionable clubs are established where liquor is dispensed. It is not whisky but money—business—with which the war has now to be waged by taking all profit out of the liquor traffic. This can be done only by having the government become the sole dispenser of liquors, selling them at actual cost."

A bill was introduced in the house yesterday making an appropriation of $100,000 to be used in the purchase of seed wheat and other necessities for the aid of destitute farmers in the drought stricken districts of western Kansas.

NEW CAUCUS LAW.

Michigan Voters May Also Have to Be Able to Read and Write English.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 10.—Senator McLaughlin of Detroit yesterday gave notice that he will introduce a bill which proposes a caucus law for all cities having a population of 20,000 or more. It provides a secret ballot in booths and the holding of caucuses by precincts, all precinct caucuses to be held the same day, from 3:30 to 7 p. m. Any precinct failing to hold a caucus shall not be represented at the convention. The bill provides that no two parties shall be permitted to hold caucuses on the same day. A joint resolution proposing an important amendment to the constitution relative to the qualification of voters was noticed by Senator McLaughlin. It provides that no person who is not able to read and write the English language shall be permitted to vote in this state.

In North Dakota.

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 10.—Gov. Roger Allen delivered his inaugural message yesterday. He recommended such legislation as may be necessary to provide a system of uniform and free text books for each county in the state, and recommended the extension of suffrage to women in municipal matters at least. The importance of legislation for good roads is urged.

Elkins Is Assured of a Senatorship.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 10.—Both branches of the legislature met yesterday, heard the governor's long message and adjourned. Hon. S. B. Elkins' election as senator is unquestioned now, as his managers named all the officers of both houses.

Gov. Renfrow Favors Statehood.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 10.—Gov. Renfrow submitted his semi-annual message to the legislature yesterday. He suggests numerous reforms and comes out clearly for statehood and the annexation of such part of the Indian territory as can be secured.

British Cruisers Appear at Bluefields.

COLON, Colombia, Jan. 10.—The British warship Mohawk has arrived at Bluefields, and its officers say they expect two more warships soon.

THIEF GOT $20,000
AT DEFIANCE, OHIO

RICH HAUL MADE BY BANK ROBBERS.

Merchants' National Visited by Professional Cracksmen Who Did Their Work with Neatness and Despatch—Scott's Alleged Abductors Are Held at O'Neill, Nebraska.

DEFIANCE, Ohio, Jan. 10.—Some time Monday night the Merchants' National bank was entered by professional cracksmen and $20,000 in cash secured. The robbery was not discovered until yesterday afternoon. Tuesday morning Cashier Hooker was unable to work the combination to the vault, but saw nothing otherwise to create suspicion. A Cincinnati expert opened the vault only to disclose that the inner safe had been exploded and its contents carried away. The cracksmen first secured an entrance to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association over the bank and dug through the masonry, twenty inches thick, which formed the top of the vault. After securing the plunder the floor was replaced and carefully secured, then the carpet was relaid and every evidence of the operation removed. On top of the vault was found the chisels and mallets, a pair of mittens, a pair of socks, and two boxes of coin which were too heavy to remove safely. There isn't the slightest clew to the robbers. The Merchants' National bank is one of the most substantial banking institutions in northwestern Ohio, its stockholders representing almost unlimited capital, hence the robbery will not cripple the bank or result in any loss to its patrons.

SCOTT SUSPECTS ARE HELD.

Three Accused Men Give Bonds, but the Body Is Not Found.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 10.—The fate that befell Barrett Scott is still shrouded in mystery. Searching parties have been out every day for the last week, but can find no trace of the missing man. G. D. Mullihan, C. M. Roy and James Pinkerman appeared before Justice Costello yesterday for a preliminary hearing. They waived examination and were bound over to the District court in the sum of $1,200 each. The bonds were furnished. Sheriff Hamilton will start out to-day to head a party of volunteers, residents of the Niobrara valley, who will continue the search for the body. The work will be on the theory that the body was thrown into the Niobrara river, and the party will be supplied with grappling hooks to drag the river. Since the bed of the river is constantly shifting and is full of quicksand there is little chance of its being located if it is really in the river.

STATE TREASURER SHORT.

W. W. Taylor of South Dakota Closes His Bank and Disappears.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 10.—The failure of W. W. Taylor, the outgoing state treasurer, to appear to turn over his office to his successor caused a sensation. Mr. Taylor can not be located, but his bank at Redfield closed its doors Tuesday night, and he is short a large amount of state funds, just how much can not be learned, but the books show that about $250,000 should be on hand. Public Examiner Meirs has not been able to secure a statement of where the funds are deposited.

Tel: grams sent out from here fail to locate Taylor. Ex-Gov. Mellette, one of his bondsmen, is on the way from Indiana, and other bondsmen are thunderstruck by the news. None of the bondsmen reside in this city, and no parties here are affected.

The governor appeared before both branches of the legislature yesterday and asked that his eulogy of Taylor in his message be stricken from the record. The shortage is now known to be $350,000, with only $16,500 state funds to be found.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Jan. 10.—From reliable sources it is learned the defalcation of State Treasurer W. W. Taylor will reach quite $300,000. Practically all state moneys was in his own hands except some $25,000 or $50,000 on deposit in various banks. The wreck is complete. It has been known for a year that Mr. Taylor personally has been in bad straits, but not one of his most intimate friends thought the situation hopeless or even desperate.

Indiana Legislative Nominations.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 10.—The republican house caucus last night put in nomination for speaker J. C. Adams of Marion county. Senate nominations were: Secretary, R. B. Oglesbie, Marshall county; assistant secretary, W. S. Ennis, Gibson county; Doorkeeper, G. W. Fausett, Orange county. The honor of a democratic nomination for speaker of the house was conferred on L. V. Bibbly of Allen county. Thomas Newkirk of Wayne was nominated for clerk.

Forty Bodies Have Been Recovered.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 10.—The fire on the excursion steamer Terceira, off Niteroi, in the harbor of Rio de Janeiro, Monday was due to the explosion of an electric motor. There were 200 persons aboard. Of this number about 120 are said to have been drowned by jumping overboard. Forty bodies have already been recovered.

SOLONS IN SESSION.

Thirty-ninth General Assembly of Illinois Opened Yesterday.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 10.—One hundred and twenty-five republican senators and representatives moved on the capitol yesterday morning and began the thirty-ninth general assembly at 12 o'clock noon. The house caucus was in session seven hours Tuesday night and did not complete the list of appointments until 3 o'clock in the morning. It took a long time to settle the numerous contests for positions, but the work was clinched beyond the possibility of a change when it was finally completed, and the house adopted the slate without a break.

The largest crowd attended the house session. Secretary Hinrichsen called the members to order at the stroke of 12. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Goodspeed, and Capt. Whitlock called the roll. The formality of electing a temporary speaker was then observed, the republicans naming Thomas B. Needles of Washington, whom Meyer defeated for speaker. The democratic minority had a candidate in the person of Thomas F. Ferns of Jersey. Mr. Needles, who was named by Hawley of Kane, was, of course, elected and assumed the gavel. The temporary organization was then perfected, and a resolution was adopted to canvass the state vote cast at the November election.

Proceeding to the permanent organization, John Meyer received the solid support of the republican side. The democrats named Clayton E. Crafts as their choice, and he, too, got every vote on the right hand side, but there were not near enough. The vote stood: Meyer, 96; Crafts, 61. Mr. Meyer's election was greeted with loud applause. He came forward and took the place of Mr. Needles. He made a short address, urging party harmony and hard work.

Messrs. Thiemann, Douglas of Randolph and Farrell were appointed a committee to notify the senate that the house was ready to proceed to business. Mr. Curtis offered a joint resolution, which was adopted, providing that the two houses convene in joint session at 11 o'clock to-day for the purpose of canvassing the returns of the vote for state officers cast at the late election. Messrs. Payne, Challacombe and Jones of Cook were appointed a committee to wait on the governor and notify him the house was organized and ready to receive any communication which he might have to present.

Mr. Berry offered a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the appointment of a committee of seven, of which the speaker should be chairman, to prepare and report rules for the government of the house during the present session. On motion of Mr. Plotke 10 o'clock was fixed as the standing hour to which the house shall adjourn each day unless otherwise ordered by majority vote.

On motion of Mr. Power the speaker was ordered to appoint a chaplain at $3 per diem. The house then adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

In the senate the republican caucus nominees were ratified, and after the appointment of a committee to notify the governor that the senate was organized and ready to receive any communication he might wish to make, on motion of Senator Crawford of Cook the rules governing the senate of the Thirty-eighth general assembly were adopted as temporary rules of this senate till such time as the committee on rules shall report. The senate then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

MINES LEASED BY DIGGERS.

New Departure by Ohio Miners, Who Become Operators.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Jan. 10.—The miners at Shawnee have leased the Gosslyn and Barber and the XX mines and are negotiating for the Iron Point and the Shawneeville Valley. They pay 10 cents per ton royalty and 10 cents commission for selling, the owners advancing 95 per cent of the pay roll at present prices for coal. The miners will receive about 35 cents per ton, but will be enabled to compete with mine owners who have broken their agreement with the men. The output of the four mines is about 2,800 tons a day.

The St. Johns Riot.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 10.—Thousands of the unemployed congregated yesterday about the city court, where the men arrested as ringleaders of Tuesday's rioting were being tried. It was brought out the real leaders of the mob wanted to break into the savings bank. The men arraigned, with one exception, have police court records. It is not likely there will be further trouble at present. The demonstration has quickened the efforts to relieve the general distress, and energetic steps are being taken to prevent further suffering.

Veteran Indian Fighter Dead.

HAMMOND, Ind., Jan. 10.—Daniel Stamp, aged 75 years, died yesterday at his home in this city. He was a veteran of the Seminole and civil wars, and the last member of the little band that fought the Indians in the Florida swamps in the early '40s.

Socialist Escapes.

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—At this morning's session of the reichstag a motion was adopted suspending the prosecution of Herr Stadt Hagen, a socialist member of that body. The debate on the anti-revolution bill was then resumed.

A WOMAN MET DEATH
IN A BURNING HOUSE

An explosion in Canfield's drug store blew out the front wall. Fireman William Rappold, Norman Anderson and Dan Conway were dangerously injured. The loss can not be ascertained, but it will exceed the insurance by $50,000.

AT HIS DAUGHTER'S BEDSIDE.

Vice-President Stevenson Remains at Asheville.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Vice-President Stevenson is still detained at Asheville, N. C., because of the illness of his daughter Mary. Her condition is still reported critical in the extreme, and it is uncertain when Mr. Stevenson will be able to return to the city. The Vice-President's family are all at Asheville, except his son, Lewis G. Stevenson, who is unable to leave the bedside of his wife, also dangerously ill in Bloomington, Ill. Lewis Stevenson has been unable to be in Washington since the meeting of congress on this account, and at times his wife's recovery has been despaired of.

More About Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The President yesterday sent to congress another batch of Hawaiian correspondence, supplementary to the Walker report. This last chapter is full of interest, inasmuch as it reveals in one case a notable difference of opinion between Admiral Walker and United States Minister Willis, making a clear issue between them. In the second place, it discloses an effort being made of the British government, with the consent of the Hawaiian authorities, to secure the lease of an island of the Hawaiian group to be used as a cable station. The memorandum showed that the subsidy demanded was $7,000 per annum for fifteen years; that the island selected should not be fortified or used as a naval station, or other than cable purposes, and that the agreement should terminate upon breach of its terms.

Funeral of Congressman Post.

GALESBURG, Ill., Jan. 10.—The remains of Congressman Philip Sidney Post arrived here yesterday morning, accompanied by the family and the congressional committee. NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The whipping post for wife beaters and abusers of children will be restored in this state if Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry and the powerful society of which he is the head have influence enough to prevail on the legislature to restore it. Mr. Gerry has his bill all prepared, and he read it at a meeting of the section on public health of the academy of medicine last evening. He said it would be introduced in both houses of the legislature at once.

Indiana Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 10.—The democratic senators will ask for a rule that when a bill has been referred to the proper committee the committee must refer it back to the house within three days for action. This, they claim, will prevent the pigeon holing of bills by the majority of a committee. The senate officers of two years ago will be the democratic nominees. Democratic members of the house will give John Higbee of Sullivan the complimentary nomination for speaker.

Locomotive Firemen in Session.

OMAHA, Neb. Jan. 10.—The board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen continued its session yesterday. The greater part of the session was consumed in a speech by C. W. Maier, who said: "We believe absolutely in arbitration, and will exhaust all honorable means to secure our just rights before resorting to extreme measures, which, of course, means strikes."

THE ADVICE GIVEN BY THE GOVERNOR

MESSAGE READ IN THE LEGISLATURE THIS MORNING.

State Bank Examination; Prison for Youthful Criminals; Changes in the State Board of Control and Normal Regents Are Advised—The Blacklisting of Employes Condemned

MADISON, Jan. 10.—[Special].—Governor Upham, in person, read his message to the joint session of two houses at 11 o'clock this morning. The assembly adopted resolutions for committees to look after the food and dairy interest and fish and game matters. The message consisted of about six thousand words and after a few opening sentences it said:

The country has been subjected to disastrous financial disturbances; yet the American people are emerging hopeful and courageous.

Our own state has suffered less than others. We have reason to be thankful to the Providence for this, and we have reason, also, to be grateful that our state has been free from epidemics; and exempt from lawlessness. We may well be proud of our varied and enormous resources which it becomes your duty to husband by wise legislation.

State Finances.
I append statement of the condition of our state finances on December 31, 1894.

Balances	Overpayments.
General fund.....	$ 329 65
School fund.....	1,655 73
School fund income.....	$640,035 11
University fund.....	3,257 65
Agricultural fund.....	153 73
Normal school fund.....	7,987 00
Drainage fund.....	2,452 24
Deposit fund.....	11,220 52
Delinquent tax fund.....	465 37
St. G. & L. S. R. R. deposits.....	127 68
Columbia and Sank Co. fund.....	3,752 42
Wis. R. R. F. M. Land Co. fund.....	4,513 57
Indemnity fund.....	2,897 88
Allotment fund.....	916 54
	676,787 35

GENERAL FUND INVESTMENTS.
Loan to state agricultural society.....	$ 30,000 00
Mortgage on state fair grounds (taken from E. C. McPetridge).....	47,782 03
Total.....	$77,782 03

OTHER FUND INVESTMENTS.
School fund, bonds and loans.....	$2,964,276 00
University fund, loans.....	216,500 00
Agricultural college fund, loans.....	240,993 06
Normal school fund, loans.....	1,802,471 85
Total.....	$5,224,240 91

It will be seen that while there are two mortgages to the credit of the general fund aggregating $77,782.03, the cash of that fund is actually overdrawn to the amount of $329.65.

On October 1, 1894, three months ago, there was in the general fund the sum of $977,315.71. Thus in three months the disbursements have aggregated $99,862.33.

Education.
No surer evidence of the growth of a people is to be found than its interest in and support of education. Wisconsin has long indulged a just pride in its system of public schools. I know it will be your pleasure to foster the system in every way which in your judgment is needed.

The last legislature made provision for revising the school laws affording an opportunity to remedy such defects as past experience may have disclosed. The report of the state superintendent of public instruction, recently issued, indicates that in compliance with the provision above referred to, a bill is to be submitted at this session embodying important specifications of existing laws.

The annual loss to the school fund from the failure on the part of cities to properly return the proceeds of penal fines merits attention. The law should be enforced, at least until provisions of the constitution relating to the subject can be amended and the laws are repealed.

During the past eight years over three thousand small libraries have been established in the country schools of the state. These libraries are broadening and bettering not only the schools, but the homes of multitudes of children, and they should be extended.

The University of Wisconsin.

The growth and progress of the State University has been so marked that it is with pleasure I call your attention to it, for the university is entitled to your most generous consideration. There has been so large an increase in the number of students that there is urgent need for additional provision to meet the increased expenses. The increased attendance from our own state is one of the most promising features.

State Historical Society.

There exists an urgent necessity for some provision for the safe housing of the Historical Society collections. The valuable character of these collections need hardly be dwelt upon. Their destruction by fire would not only be a loss to the state, but to every historical student and scholar in the country. A fire-proof building should be provided at once. If the university library and the historical society's collections could be placed under one roof, it would be an economical and convenient arrangement.

Normal Schools.

Some additional legislation will be required to make provision for maintaining the efficiency of our normal schools. The year will close with a deficit in the normal school fund. This subject should receive prompt attention. I recommend a reduction in the number of regents to, perhaps, five. Of whatever number the board may consist, the clerk of the board should not be a member.

State Superintendent.

The salary of the state superintendent of public instruction as now provided for by the constitution is inadequate. It should be increased to a sum which shall bear a proper relation to the importance and responsibility of the office.

State Banks.

While the calamity which has befallen a number of the banks of the state has been but the natural result of the generally disastrous condition of the country, it has been made clear, I believe, that a proper supervision of the financial institutions of the state might have averted the disaster in many cases. I am convinced that there is pronounced sentiment throughout the state in favor of some kind of bank supervision.

Charitable, Reformatory and Penal Institutions.

From the biennial report of the state board of control you will learn the condition of the charitable, reformatory and penal institutions of the state. The report emphasizes the needs of certain of these institutions.

The State Prison.

Notwithstanding that there have been added so the capacity of the state prison at Waupun seventy-two cells, the prison is now greatly overcrowded. The report says:

A large number of cells are now occupied by two convicts. This condition is both illegal and inhuman. The prison is too small for the number confined therein. The present prison must be enlarged or a new one erected. The board will strongly recommend the latter remedy.

The remedy for such condition should, and I have no doubt will, be promptly provided. In that institution are many men who are suffering the penalty of their first offense. The close association of these in cells with hardened criminals makes it probable that they will emerge confirmed criminals. Provision should be made for a reformatory at the earliest possible day.

By providing a reformatory for first offenders, relieved of the most degrading features of the state prison discipline, and where the primary duty of the wardenship would be the reform of the inmates, the crowded condition of the state prison might be relieved, and a more wise and humane treatment of first offenders be instituted.

I recommend, in view of the urgency of the needs recited, that the legislature provide for the appointment of a committee which shall investigate the condition of the state prison, and report before the close of the session.

School for Feeble-Minded.

Wisconsin is far behind many other states. A majority of the unfortunate named, are kept in almshouses; some are in insane asylums, and others are cared for at their homes. In the seventeen states in which homes for the feeble-minded have been established, the most benign results have been attained. It has been demonstrated that even the lowest grades of imbeciles are capable of some degree of cultivation, while a large percentage have developed an ability for self-support.

The report of the state board of control says of this class of unfortunate:

"It is absolutely necessary that some provision be made for their care, as there is now no place in the state where they can be legally committed."

It is not necessary that a large appropriation be made for the establishment of a school home. It would be the wiser plan, to make a small beginning, but that beginning should be made as soon as practicable.

Agriculture.

The importance to the people of the highest possible diversification and development of agriculture cannot be overestimated. The growth of Wisconsin in this respect during the past ten years has been more marked than in any decade in our history. Thousands of acres in the northern part of the state have been developed into profitable farms, and in the older farming sections progress has been marked by the adoption of the most improved methods, and a wider diversity of products.

Dairying.

Especially has the growth been notable in the dairy industry. It is estimated that there is now invested in the dairy industry of Wisconsin more than $160,000,000; and according to the last report to the State Dairymen's association the milk products of the state for 1894 aggregated $30,000,000.

With this growth, however, there have appeared serious dangers to the future of the industry. The high reputation of Wisconsin cheese has been injured by the manufacture and sale, of "filled cheese", greatly inferior in quality, but not distinguishable from the better product by ordinary inspection. While not favoring paternalistic legislation, I deem it to be the duty of the legislature to protect this industry against injury and to protect the people against imposition. I recommend the enactment of some law which shall compel the manufacturers and vendors of such cheese to so brand, or mark it that it shall no longer be sold for what it is not.

I recommend to your attention the necessity for legislation which shall protect the butter makers from unfair competition with substances manufactured in the similitude of butter, and sold as butter, which are not made from milk or cream.

Those who wish to buy butter and who suppose they are paying for butter, are entitled to what they buy and pay for. Those who wish to buy substances for butter are entitled to what they pay for; but the farmer and other dairymen ought not to be brought into competition with any substance not distinguishable from butter.

There has been some question as to the power of the legislature to enact legislation which will protect the people in this respect. All questions have been recently put at rest by the supreme court of the United States, in its decision in a case appealed from the supreme court of Massachusetts. I recommend the enactment of a similar measure. That measure allows oleomargarine and other substances for butter to be sold for what they really are, but prohibits the coloring of the artificial product in the similitude of the genuine article.

I recommend the usual appropriation of $2,000 per annum for the State Dairymen's association; also the usual annual appropriation for the State Agricultural society.

To Develop Agricultural Resources.

The mineral and lumber interests have for many years claimed the attention of capitalists and workmen that the agricultural interests of a portion of our state have been somewhat neglected. Agriculture exceeds greatly all the other interests combined. The time has come, it seems to me, when the state itself should adopt means to call attention to its wonderful agricultural possibilities, yet undeveloped.

We have, in the northern half of the state, thousands of acres of vacant lands, which need but labor to be transformed into prosperous and fruitful homes. The problem presented in the overcrowded condition of many of the cities might find at least a partial solution in the cultivation of the vacant lands.

Enforcement of Sanitary Laws.

The enforcement of sanitary laws in certain portions of the state during the past year has called attention to the fact that the statutes make no provision for the reimbursement by municipalities of families whose household goods are destroyed through that enforcement. Authority should be given to municipalities to reimburse families to whom destruction of household goods may be a calamity. To compel them to sacrifice for the public welfare what they cannot spare and cannot replace seems like imposing a penalty upon misfortune.

I commend the subject to your careful consideration.

The National Guard.

The system instituted in our state militia a number of years ago has been productive of a high state of efficiency in the national guard of the state. The people of Wisconsin have reason for congratulation that their militia has been brought to so high a plane of efficiency. The general government has recognized the necessity for co-operation in maintaining a well-disciplined national guard in each state. It is the least expensive standing army that can be maintained, and its generous support is, I believe, a wise provision.

The maintenance of a permanent camp of instruction and rifle practice at Camp Douglas has proven a wise measure, and provision should be made for its maintenance on a scale that will further enhance its value and importance.

The Roster Law.

The legislature of 1887, passed a law making provision for the printing and publication of the roster of Wisconsin soldiers. This law is still in force, and it should be repealed. If at any time there should be such a demand for a roster as would in the judgment of the legislature warrant its publication, it can be easily be provided for, and the provision should be made that it be printed under the general contract for public printing or let to the lowest bidder.

Aid For Fire Sufferers.

You will be asked to make an appropriation to assist the fire sufferers from the forest fires by providing for them seed for their spring planting. An appropriation for this purpose, carefully expended, would not only be a humane act, but would seem to be founded on sound public policy.

Municipal Government.

There may come before you measures having in view a reform in the method of managing municipal affairs. These measures should receive kindly attention. Some cities will seek help by asking for laws empowering them to apply and extend civil service methods. There is evident a very great desire for improved methods in conducting city affairs. It lies in your power to encourage the furtherance of such reform.

Soldier and Student Vote.

There is located within this state, established and maintained by the general government, a home for disabled veteran soldiers. The property belongs to the United States and the right of the inmates of the home to vote has sometimes been questioned. I earnestly recommend that those inmates who are citizens of the United States, and who shall have resided one year in the state, shall be expressly authorized to vote at the nearest election precincts. Men who have been disabled in the service of this country should not be disfranchised on technical grounds.

There is also a grave question as to the right of students, otherwise qualified, to vote while prosecuting their studies. I see no reason why thousands of intelligent young men spending nearly all the year and generally several successive years in educational institutions within the state, should not be permitted to exercise the right of franchise where they are obtaining their education. There would seem to be no good reason why the law should not authorize such students to vote in the city wherein is located the institution of learning which they attend.

The State Board of Control.

The state board of control as now organized consists of six members. In case of an equal division upon any question there is no means of reaching a decision. I suggest the wisdom of making the board to consist of either five or seven members.

If a reorganization of the board should be deemed advisable, I commend the wisdom of providing either for a woman member of the board or for a woman visitor. In all the institutions there are women whose needs could be much better learned by one of their own sex.

An Apportionment Commission.

The present legislative apportionment is very unsatisfactory in many respects. What the people demand is an apportionment based fairly upon population and territory, regardless of partisan demands. I recommend, therefore, that the legislature provide for the appointment of a non-partisan commission to prepare a bill to submit to the legislature.

Judicial Re-Apportionment.

There is a growing demand among the judges and others for a re-arrangement of the judicial circuit of the state. Such a readjustment should take into consideration population and territory, which are little regarded in the present adjustment. The change should be effected, if at all, without increasing the number of circuits.

Forestry.

Measures may come before you having in view the preservation of the forests of our state. The danger which threatens not only our own state but the entire country through the denudation of our forest lands is claiming the attention of people everywhere. There has been organized in Wisconsin a forestry association to work in conjunction with the American Forestry Association, in arousing a more active public interest in the subject. The claims of these associations are deserving of attention, and I doubt not will receive the consideration to which they are entitled.

Road Improvement.

The object of the improvement of country roads is one which should interest every citizen of the state. It is of special importance however, to those living in rural communities. A measure looking to a systematic effort to improve the public highways will probably come before you, and I am assured it will be carefully considered by you.

Report of Legislation Committee.

At the last session of the legislature the governor was authorized to appoint a commission for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States. The commission was appointed, performed its labor, and its report will be submitted to you. I bespeak for the report your candid consideration.

Labor and Capital.

Notwithstanding the widespread distress which has resulted from industrial stagnation, our state has been singularly free from manifestations of lawlessness. This fact bears witness to the law-abiding character of our citizens. It emphasizes the obligation which rests upon the law-making body of the state to watch the interests of all classes and to enact laws to meet the changing industrial conditions; laws which shall ensure to labor the just and fair recompense of toil and at the same time encourage capital in the development of resources.

It has been charged that there has come to be among corporations employing large numbers of men, a system under which an employer having a grievance against a former employee, warns other employers not to give employment to the person. While there may be cases in which incapacity or a reckless disregard of duty by an employee, leading to his discharge on that ground, might justify an employer in warning other employers from taking such person into their service; or where an employee has betrayed in a dishonest manner a trust, a former employer might be justified in protecting others by proper notification; nevertheless, it would seem to be true that where an employee, entirely faithful and competent, quits service in a manner not to endanger public safety, because of a grievance real or supposed, or because compelled to do so by the action of an association to which he belongs, simply exercises his right to quit, and neither commits nor incites violence, it is without justification.

It is for the public interest that every industrious, sober and competent man should be employed. I cannot but regard an arrangement among a large number of employers not to employ or permit to be employed, if they can prevent it, competent and faithful men simply because they quit the service of some other employer, as a conspiracy which ought not to be tolerated by the law.

This concedes the right of employers to choose their employees and to discharge them at will, unless restrained by contract. The right of employees, unless similarly restrained is just as complete and just as sacred. The employer is not to be punished by boycott or black-listing for exercising his right to discharge, and the employee is not to be punished by boycott or black-listing for simply exercising his right to quit. The employer has no more right to be protected by the law from a conspiracy on the part of employees than employees have to be protected by law against a conspiracy on the part of employers.

This exemption of employees or laboring men from persecution by em-

THE BRINK OF MADNESS.

An End to Which Many Are Blindly Rushing.

Many Paths Lead Straight to This Terrible End.

Are You Hopelessly Struggling Along This Dangerous Road?

The world-renowned poet Gray, says: "The paths of glory lead but to the grave." All paths lead to the grave, but especially do those dangerous walks of life, overwork, strain on the system, dissipation, improper attention to the rules of health, involving sleepless nights, tired bodies and weak and shattered nerves, lead to an early death, or a more dreaded and fearful fate.

Notice the strength and powerful advice in the following letter, written by Mrs. J. Wesley Mann, of Northfield, Mass.:

"About 18 months ago, my daughter Jennie went into a large store as clerk, and was obliged to make long days of about 14 hours, and the work proved too hard for her. She was completely run down, being prostrated by nervous debility. She had terrible restless nights, and was unable to sleep hardly at all. Her head troubled her, being dizzy, and her limbs ached, and frequently she would sit down and cry, she was in such pain.

MISS JENNIE MANN.

"They had Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in the store where she worked, and the proprietor recommended her to take it, which she did.

"She wrote to me while she was taking the Nervura, that it had done wonders for her. She is now entirely cured of her nervousness and has not been so well in years.

"She was so nervous that she could hardly sit at table, and any little noise would startle her like a wild partridge. She has now used three bottles, and we are thankful to say that she is well, thanks to kind Providence and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

It is beyond the power of words to tell the wonders that are done every day by that greatest of medicines, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. No medicine ever before possessed such wonderful powers to cure. Try it and see what it will do for you. It will make you strong and well.

It is not a patent medicine but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York city. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene's guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the efficient action of this wonderful medicine.

WRAPS AND GOWNS.

Velvet in High Favor For Street Wear—A Chic Costume.

Velvet is the leading material for outdoor garments this winter in the heavy plushlike variety known as cloaking velvet. This is black, and either plain or in moire effect will be used extensively with jet and feather trimmings.

A black velvet visite is fashionable for afternoon street wear and cannot be equaled by any other garment for the theater, unless it is the conventional opera cloak, which is decidedly inappropriate if the wearer patronizes the street cars. One of last year's capes can be converted into one of these mantles by lengthening it with a bias ruffle of velvet, put on very scant. Where this joins the cape a band of fur can be arranged, and above this a deep jet garniture. Stole ends of velvet could be treated to both fur and jet, and a deep pointed shoulder cape carry out the same fancy. A bias ruffle of velvet for the collar would harmonize with the bottom of the cape.

Moire velvet makes a handsome wrap for an elderly lady.

The open front jacket bids fair to become enormously popular this season.

The plain skirt continues in favor, both for street and evening gowns. Indeed there is little likelihood that very elaborate skirts will be worn until the excessive trimming of bodices and the enormous sleeves now in style cease to be fashionable, for it is a general rule that when the bodice is simple the skirt is elaborate, and vice versa. When an evening corsage consisted of a smooth corselet, with narrow straps over the shoulders, the lower part of the gown was draped, plaited, paneled and wreathed with all the ingenuity that is now devoted to the upper portion. The bell shaped skirt, just touching the ground all around, is still the prevailing style for all costumes, trains being worn only on occasions of exceptional ceremony.

The gown shown in the sketch is made of almond colored cloth and plaid silk in rose shades. The left side of the cloth skirt has a narrow silk panel bordered on each side by a band of marten fur, which is continued around the foot of the skirt. The panel is crossed by brandebourgs of passementerie. The bodice is cut with a small basque and has full fronts crossed at the waist. Three full straps of silk trim the upper part of the bodice. The basque is edged with fur, the sleeves are of bias silk, and the standing collar is of black velvet.

USEFUL NOTES.

How to Wash Lace—Sheepskin as an Interlining—Lamp Shades.

Very fine laces should not be washed in the ordinary way. If only slightly soiled, they may be cleaned by rubbing into them powdered chalk or calcined magnesite, the piece being spread out on soft white cloth or white paper, thoroughly covered with the chalk, and then with a second piece of cloth or paper, the whole being placed under a heavy weight for several days. If the lace is much soiled, dip it into a bowl of naphtha or two benzene stirs, but never dry it in the sun. Shake and flannel covered. Dry the same on a spinning wheel, spinning out the yarn. When the lace is dry, it may be washed in a very valuable, and hot water, with a little of pure soap left to soak for a few hours, ammonia, be carefully rinsed in scours. It should be pinned out to dry. Several waters and thicknesses of woolen material will not give the warmth that one experiences from one or two of this closely woven cotton. As an interlining for garments for severe weather canton flannel or denim of good quality is unsuited. These materials are somewhat heavy, but this is atoned for by the feeling of comfort procured by their use. Next to them is some leather material, such as chamois or sheepskin. It is possible to buy for a very small sum shaved down as soft and pliable as velvet. Those who have never used this as an interlining will be surprised at the perfect comfort and protection that it affords. There are persons who find it impossible to keep warm, no matter what amount of woolen material they may put on. This may be a constitutional peculiarity, but nevertheless it exists and is worthy of consideration.

Painted lamp shades are the successors of silk ones. These shades are made of heavy water color paper, with a decoration in strong, clear colors painted by hand upon them. They are finished at the top by a patent fixture and are ornamented around the lower edge by a silk fringe.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1790—Ney, famous French marshal in Napoleon's army, born at Saarlouis; executed for treason in the Waterloo campaign in 1815. Ney was the son of a cooper and served as a private in the army of revolutionary France. He became a general in 1796 and won renown with Massena and Gen. Granger. Moreau in Germany and Switzerland. The baton of a marshal was conferred in 1804, besides which he received the titles of duke and prince in recognition of his impetuous courage. His conduct at Jena was superb; also in the Spanish campaigns. He commanded the center at Borodino and covered the retreat from Russia, receiving from Napoleon the appellation "bravest of the brave." When the exile returned from Elba, he could not hold aloof and joined his fortunes to those of his chief, an act which the defeat of Napoleon at Waterloo rendered treason.

1800—The great Pemberton mill at Lawrence, Mass., fell, and 525 persons were killed and wounded.

1863—Lyman Beecher, father of the famous family, died in Brooklyn; born Oct. 12, 1775.

1876—General Gordon Granger, a distinguished Union commander in the west, died at Santa Fe; born 1826.

1880—Dr. Johann Joseph Ignatz von Dollinger, German theologian, leader of the Old Catholic party, died in Munich; born 1799.

1886—General Benjamin Franklin Butler, civilian general, lawyer and statesman, died in Washington; born 1818.

1894—Rear Admiral Donald McNeill Fairfax, U. S. N., retired, died at Hagerstown, Md.; born 1824.

FIRE SWEEPED A ROOM AT TRULSON'S HOME

FIRST WARD RESIDENCE HAD A CLOSE CALL.

An Oil Stove That Was Lighted To Heat a Room for a Visiting Minister, Mysteriously Set Fire to the Furniture—Other News From About the Town.

ONE of the sleeping rooms in S. Trulson's handsome residence 151 Washington street, was seriously damaged by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Trulson were entertaining the minister, and it being quite a cold evening, they lighted an oil heating stove to warm the room. It was a successful effort, for when they returned to the room a few minutes after lighting the oil, they discovered that everything in the room was destroyed. Cool and quick work on the part of the household extinguished the fire and prevented more serious consequences. No alarm was turned in.

The Modern Folding Bed.

Mrs. de Flat—Have you anything new in folding beds?

Dealer—Only this, madam, and it really is quite a success. On rising in the morning you touch a spring and it turns into a wash stand and bathtub. After your bath you touch another spring and it becomes a dressing-case with a French-plate mirror. If you breakfast in your room a slight pressure will transform it into an extension table. After breakfast you press these three buttons at once and you have an upright piano. That is all that it will do, except that when you die it can be changed into a rosewood coffin.—Spare Moments.

Did Not Dare To.

FARMERS ARE AFTER THE STATE SOLONS

POLITICS AND AGRICULTURE
AT MILTON JUNCTION

Important Demands Likely To Be Made by the Annual Convention—Legislature Asked To Make Numerous Reforms in Laws Bearing Upon the Soil-Tiller.

Politics and farming both got a hearing at the Milton Junction farmers convention. It's the best sort of farming in Rock county and the politics is the sort that has much to do with the farmer's welfare.

Should the railroads be owned and operated by the government?

That was one question presented to the convention. It went down in silence. So did a resolution declaring the establishment of the income tax to be just, although this declaration was seen to have many friends.

What work have the farmers of Wisconsin laid out for the present legislature to do in the interest of agriculture?

That inquiry developed lively discussion. P. Marquart suggested that the farmer couldn't expect to get much unless he asked for it. He cited game laws as an example of legislation repugnant to most farmers but adopted because no protest had ever been made and because sportsmen were better organized.

A. M. Carter thought the noxious weed law was insufficient and that farmers should ask the present legislature to make reforms along that line. In the western part of Rock county several prosecutions under the present law had been unavailing. A committee of three—Pr. fessor J. Coleman, Evansville; S. S. Northrop, Clinton, and Philo Thomas, Milton, were appointed to prepare resolutions to the legislature.

RESOLVED, That the mortgages on realty be taxed and the tax be endorsed on the mortgage as part payment.

This was the gist of a declaration that aroused most vigorous protest. Half a dozen farmers, some declaring that they held mortgages themselves, spoke against the resolution. They objected to the scheme because of the double taxing that would be inevitable—taxation of the money in one distinct, and of the mortgage in another. All the resolutions were placed in the hands of a resolution committee.

Dairying the Best Specialty.

Turning from the argumentative to the practical the convention heard a paper on dairying by Prof. J. E. Coleman of Evansville. Prof. Coleman thought dairying the most profitable line open to Rock county farmers. It was the only one, he said, where the produce could be marketed in a spring buggy and the abominable Wisconsin roads be outflanked.

Dairying enriched the farm instead of impoverishing it. It was a confining occupation, but need not be hard if proper arrangements were made for caring for the herd.

"Losses in Dairying" was a kindred topic presented by J. W. Howard of Fort Atkinson. One of the greatest leakages he said, was from lack of cleanliness. Before milking any cow the tank and udder should be brushed and sponged. If Cowley cans were used the milk should be strained into them as soon as drawn and while warm. Allowing it to stand and cool for fifteen minutes first caused a loss in butter fat. He favored the use of separators, because it gave the skim milk sweet and fresh just at the time it was wanted for feeding. Most of the loss in dairying Mr. Howard thought, came from having to do most of the work twice to get it well done once.

Babbitt Against Special Lines.

Clinton Babbitt said he was opposed to special lines of farming and was opposed to concentrating all efforts upon dairying. He thought it easily possible that a farmer, in paying for a separator, might have to mortgage and lose his farm. Mr. Howard cited a case where a man had paid for a $125 separator in one year out of the increased profit from six cows. S. S. Northrop said he didn't suppose dairying would prove a panacea for all the farmer's ills, but he was sure that grain raising no longer paid in Rock county and he wanted to see something adopted that would be profitable. In a paper on "How Shall We Best Maintain the Fertility of the Soil?" Mr. Northrop endorsed Mammoth clover as a good crop for the soil and good feed for every animal.

C. J. Kinney of Rockford, and Superintendents David Throne and William Ross of his county discussed "What Our Common Schools Need," and Prof. W. C. Whitford spoke on "Lessons From a European Trip."

Convention Is A Big One.

Each year the Milton Junction institute grows in size and the papers seem to be more valuable. Among those present at the first session this time were: Clinton Babbitt, Beloit; J. K. P. Porter, Cooksville; James Hopkins, Fulton; A. C. Powers, Beloit; Elijah Wixom, Janesville; Andrew Blass, Harmony; S. S. Northrop, Clinton; A. M. Carter, Janesville; Rev. Roswell, Fulton; A. E. Wilcox, Harmony; Thomas Edden, Harmony; Professor J. Coleman, Evansville; David Throne, Beloit; Superintendent Ross, Footville.

The common council of Steinhilber, Silesia, have elected, for the protection of the village, a night watchman. She is said to be stalwart and resolute and takes a motherly interest in various small boys who are cut o' nights.

LONG TERMS FOR HORSE THIEVES

New Bill Will Be Introduced at Madison This Winter.

A bill will be introduced at Madison at this session of the legislature providing for longer sentences for the crime of horse stealing. The first move was made by the Clinton Anti-Horse Thief Association, who passed a resolution asking Assemblyman S. S. Jones to work for a law having a penalty of ten years' imprisonment for first offense and twenty years for the second. O. C. Gilmore was elected president; B. Snyder vice president; T. W. Tuttle, secretary; and A. W. Shepard, treasurer, for the coming year.

DIPHTHERIA ON JACKSON STREET

Two Cases at the Home of Mrs. Harden Are Quarantined.

There are two cases of diphtheria in the family of Mrs. Harden, 114 North Jackson street, and it is claimed that the quarantine rules are not enforced sufficiently to prevent the spread of the disease.

The home of John H. Donahoe, 254 South River street, was placed under quarantine regulations today, on account of a case of diphtheria in the family.

BURGLARS STILL ROB STORES

Cambridge Establishment Was Entered and Much Booty Taken.

Thieves made a $200 haul from F. C. Slagg's store at Cambridge, in the form of silks, mufflers, dress goods, overcoats and boots and shoes. Later the goods were found in a straw stack on the farm owned by Sam Brown. A rather dilapidated old coat was found near the Potter Bros' sorghum mill, in one of the pockets was found a newspaper with Fred Pelzer's name upon it. Steps have been taken to find the owner of the coat.

HERIFF APPLEBY'S STAR IS GOLD

First One Was of Tin and Has Been Improving Ever Since.

Sheriff Appleby wears a solid gold star now. He has followed out the line of progression in the metals. The Beloit Free Press says: "When he was a night watchman he wore a tin star; when he was longer in service he bought a German silver star; when he was elected city marshal he 'sprung' a solid silver star, and now he has a solid gold sheriff star pinned on his vest."

Notice to Contractors and Builders.

Having purchased the Shoppell Norris planing mill, I am now prepared to furnish estimates on all house-furnishing goods such as sash, doors, blinds, moulding, etc.

I take possession of the mill February 1st, until that time please call at the Hub, 103 W. Milwaukee street.

CRUTCHES IN PLACE OF SHINING SKATES

MISS ANNA THIEL HAD HER LEG BROKEN.

Effects of a Fall on the "Gas House Pond" Last Night Will House Her for Some Time To Come—Victor Phelps' Fatal Fun at Dixon, Illinois.

Miss Anna Thiel is a Second ward young lady who has laid away her skates for the season, and instead, will require a pair of crutches to aid her movements.

Miss Thiel was one of a large party of young people who were enjoying the skating on the "gas house pond" last evening, when she fell, breaking her left leg just above the ankle. She was taken to the home of her uncle, Ex-Alderman C. H. Kueck, 109 Caroline street, with whom she resides, and her broken limb was attended to by Dr. W. H. Jud and James Gibson.

VICTOR PHELPS' DEATH WAS SAD.

Fall on the Ice While Skating, Fractured His Skull.

Sad news came to Spencer Phelps this morning from Dixon, Ill. It was the announcement of the death of Victor Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Phelps, which occurred last night. The boy, who was but ten years of age, fell on the ice while skating, in such a way as to fracture his skull. The injury was known to be a dangerous one, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Phelps were summoned to the bedside yesterday. Until 9 o'clock last night the little fellow lived, and then death cut his sufferings short.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps, the afflicted parents, are well known in Janesville, where they have many friends. Mr. Phelps was formerly the foreman of the Wisconsin Shoe Company's factory. Mrs. Phelps will be remembered as Miss Emma Emmons. Mary Janesville people will extend their sincere sympathy.

A Few Eye Don'ts.

Don't allow a cold wind to strike the eyes. Don't try to do eye work with the light shining in the face. Don't have colored shades on lamps; use white or ground glass. Don't open the eyes under water in bathing, especially in salt water. Don't let any strong light, like that from electricity shine directly into the eyes. Don't strain the eyes by reading, sewing, or any like occupation with an imperfect light. Don't bathe inflamed eyes with cold water; that which is as warm as it can be borne is better. Don't sleep opposite a window, in such a manner that a strong light will strike the eyes on awakening. Don't, above all, have the children sleep so that the morning sun shall shine in their faces to arouse them. Don't expect to get another pair of eyes when these have been destroyed by neglect or misuse; but consult W. F. Hayes, the expert optician at F. C. Cook & Co's., opposite the post office. He adjusts spectacles scientifically.

THE ADVICE GIVEN BY THE GOVERNOR

payers for quitting is peculiarly important. If the law does not protect men who have quit this service of employers from blacklisting, such as I have indicated, it should, in my judgment, be so amended as to plainly include it.

It is of the highest importance that the best possible relations should exist between capital and labor. Neither should be permitted to invade the rights of the other; each should deal with the other in the spirit of conciliation, and in the settlement of differences, arbitration should, as far as possible, be made to take the place of strikes and lock-outs.

I cannot see my way clear to any efficient scheme of compulsory arbitration, under existing constitutional provisions; nor can I see that such a scheme is possible, without involving the surrender, by both labor and capital, of rights of which men hold to be very sacred. It must be borne in mind that the right of men to contract with each other is fundamental in our constitution, and that any subrogation of this right must work serious disadvantage to all concerned. I am not willing to admit, however, that the state may not, through the investigation and conciliatory intervention of officials provided for by law, do much toward bringing about the adjustment of differences between labor and capital which shall be as once honorable and fair to both sides.

The object is so important of accomplishment as to justify experimental legislation upon the matter. I bespeak for the subject your most thoughtful and careful deliberation, with assurance of earnest executive co-operation in any feasible plan which your wisdom may devise.

In conclusion permit me to express the hope that the session may be characterized by a sincere regard for the public interest. Economy may well be the watchword of the servants of a commonwealth so well endowed with material resources as ours; but it is a true economy which the people desire; an economy which tends rather to a wise expenditure of public funds than to a niggardly provision for those purposes which a high conception of the public welfare demands.

Every avenue of expenditure should be carefully scrutinized. Every department of the state government should be watched with a jealous eye. Unnecessary and superfluous offices in all departments should be abolished, and no new offices should be created for which there is not an unmistakable demand in the interest of the public service.

The session should be as short and expeditious as is compatible with an honest and thorough consideration of the measures which shall come before you.

In all your efforts to advance the moral and material welfare of the state you will have, I assure you, my hearty co-operation.

A Devoted Son.

A devoted son living on an island off Bristol assisted in decently composing his father's remains in his casket the other day, and then with a filial tear in his eye thus apostrophized the old fisherman, lying dead: "Well, dad, I hope as how you're comfortable in your new punt."

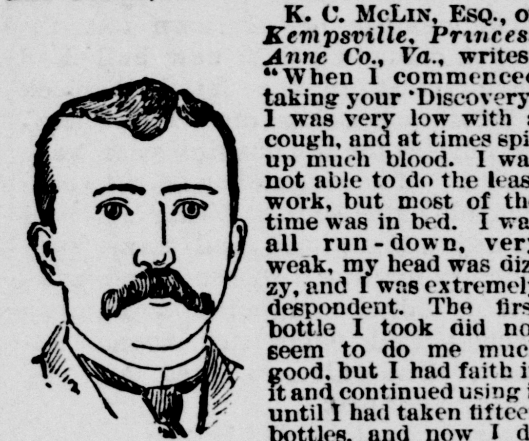

Rosa Bonheur is no longer the only woman artist who is entitled to wear upon her breast the cross of the Legion of Honor, for a like distinction has just been bestowed upon Mme. Virginie Demont-Breton the daughter of Julius Breton and the wife of Adrien Demont, both of whom are masters of the brush. Mme. Demont-Breton has for the last dozen years been a successful exhibitor, in the Paris salon, of marine pictures.

The oldest active professor in Germany is said to be Prof. Councillor Stieckel, professor of natural languages at Jena, who recently celebrated the ninetieth anniversary of his birth. It was Professor Stieckel who answered Prince Bismarck's question as to his age in the following manner: "I have seen Napoleon I; Germany in its condition of deepest disgrace. I have known Goethe, and in him seen Germany at the pinnacle of its literary development; and now I see in your highness, him who brought our Fatherland to the pinnacle of political development."

Mr. K. C. McLin, Esq., of Kemptville, Princess Anne Co., Va., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very low with a cough, and at times spit up much blood. I was not able to do the least work, but most of the time was in bed. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely despondent. The first bottle I took did not seem to do me much good, but I had faith in it and continued using it until I had taken fifteen bottles, and now I do not look nor feel like the same man I was one year ago. People are astonished, and say, 'well, last year this time I would not have thought that you would be living now.' I can thankfully say I am entirely cured of a disease which, but for your wonderful 'Discovery,' would have resulted in my death."

$3,000 to be sold by February 1,
By Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Until we commenced to cut prices on shoes almost a year ago, the shoe business in this city had been a monopoly, and you have paid monopoly prices for your shoes. We are not afraid of competition, we challenge it, and thus far not a single instance have our competitors dared to meet (they say) our "ruinously low prices." We will stay in Janesville, not to move to Aurora, and we will fight to give the people of Janesville the best shoes for less money than they ever paid before. We have no fear and ask no favors. If you can buy stylish, quality guaranteed shoes and foot furnishings at any other store as cheaply as you can of us, Don't Trade Here.

We are entitled to your patronage because our store and our progressive methods are bound to benefit the city. It is to your interest to foster competition, not to crush it. You can help us make our store an ideal establishment where a poor man, as well as the wealthy, can dress his feet in fashionable, dependable apparel at prices that he has heretofore been paying for trash. Marzluff & Co., refused to sell us any more, so we will close out what we have of the stock, $3,000 worth at what we paid the factory.

Hope Crushed to Earth

Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic wise enough to substitute for the tenebrionides, which have hampered him out of his belief in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bilious, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the rheumatic alike derive speedy benefit from this helpful botanic medicine. Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive and permanent good from the fiery unmedicated stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly. The Bitters is immeasurably to be preferred to these as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence. Malaria is prevented and removed by it, and it infuses vigor into the weak and sickly. A wineglassful three times a day is the average dose.

"Yield Not to Misfortune."

I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus Geo. Shantz.

Rahway, N. J.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.
